Last Saturday, Mai and her classmates visited a cave near a small village. Their teacher asked everyone to bring a hat and some water. Mai put a bottle of water in her backpack before she left home. The class arrived at the village in the morning and walked to the cave. It was cool inside, and the children saw rocks of many different shapes. Their teacher told them not to touch the rocks. They listened carefully and took some photos. After the visit, they walked to a river and had lunch there. Mai's friend Hoa sat near a tree and drew a picture of the river. Mai helped her teacher collect the rubbish after lunch. Before they went home, the class looked at the pictures together. Mai enjoyed the trip because she learnt about nature and spent time with her friends. She hopes to visit the village again with her family during the summer holiday.
